

For Immediate Release:

Mason County Promise Zone Authority Board: Vacancy announcement

The Mason County Promise Zone's success depends on an inclusive board made up of diverse perspectives. In an effort to achieve a board that fairly represents the communities it serves, the Promise Board seeks to fill a vacant position serving a four-year term that begins in 2024 (with option to renew). Perspectives that add valuable insight to the Promise Board include, but are not limited to:

- Parents of students in K-12 or post-secondary education
- Educators in K-12 or post-secondary education
- School Counselors or academic advisors
- Economic and Workforce Development experience
- Community Involvement or Leadership experience
- Business Leaders or Human Resource Directors

The Board consists of 11 voting members. Nine member positions can be selected locally by the Mason County Promise Board. The Board currently meets on the 2nd Monday of each month from 3-5 PM, with committee meetings that vary. All Board meetings are open to the public. Interested individuals should send their application, which can be downloaded from MasonCountyPromise.org, and resume by December 30, 2023 to: info@masoncountypromise.org, or by mail to Mason County Promise, Attn: Community Engagement Committee, 5300 W. US 10, Ludington, MI 49431
